

Dear Loyal Georgetown Market Customer,

In this ever-changing economy Georgetown Market remains committed to providing you with the quality and service you have come to expect from a local leader in the natural foods market.

We know you have choices. That's why, every day, we strive to make your experience the best it can be. From fresh, organic produce to the highest quality supplements, to the best tasting meals in our Eatery, Georgetown Market is the destination for all your natural health needs.

But we're so much more! Where else can you find:

- Classes to educate and inform—like our recent Healthy Shopping class with Jodi Smith, and a monthly raw foods support group.
- A Rewards program that doubles the points you earn on brand names like Nordic Naturals and Garden of Life!
- Knowledgeable staff members who are there to help you find the answers you're looking for.
- A referral network of local Naturopaths, Chiropractors, and other wellness experts.

At Georgetown Market, we know we're more than just a store—we're part of a community. Although times may be tough, we won't compromise our reputation. That's why you can always look to Georgetown Market as your best local resource for natural health!

Thank you for supporting Georgetown Market and your local community. Please don't hesitate to contact me or any department manager for questions, comments or just to chat!
