

Heidi Barr Hilton
heidihil@umich.edu

Education

2009-present: University of Michigan School of Public Health. GPA 7.8 /8.0.
Human Nutrition—Dietetics.
2005-2009: University of Michigan, LSA Honors College. GPA 3.6 /4.0.
Biology and German Bachelor of Science. Graduated Cum Laude.
2001-2005: Rochester Adams High School.
Graduated Salutatorian.

Internships & Volunteer

March 2010-present: Nutrition Assistant at A Weigh of Life Nutrition
October 2009-February 2010: Health Ambassador for Project Healthy Schools.

- Teach sixth-graders lessons on nutrition and healthy lifestyle choices.

May 2009-present: Volunteer Comfort Companion for “No One Dies Alone” at St. Joseph Mercy Hospital in Pontiac, MI.

- Sit with and comfort terminally ill patients during their final hours.

April 2007-May 2009: Volunteer at Ruthven Museum of Natural History.

- Identify, catalogue and install specimens.

May-August 2007: Caregiver for handicapped children at Haus Münstertal Specialty Clinic in Staufen, Germany.

- Administer to physically and/or mentally handicapped children in a clinical setting for a three-week rotation per group of children.
- Achieved fluency in German while living independently in Germany.

Work Experience & Activities

January 2009-present: Ross Athletic Academic Center Biology Tutor.
September-December 2009: Graduate Student Instructor.
Biology 252: Chordate Anatomy and Phylogeny.

- Prepare lab and dissection specimens
- Prepare and administer weekly practical quizzes
- Present weekly lab lectures

September 2007-May 2009: Sweetland Writing Center Peer Tutor.
Nominated; completed two semesters of seminars; continuing education.
2005-2007: Member of University of Michigan Women’s Varsity Crew Team.

Honors & Awards

2008: James B. Angell Scholar: more than two consecutive semesters of all A’s.
2007 & 2008: University Honors.
2006: University of Michigan Scholar Athlete Award.