Beer of the Month:

Keweenaw Pick Axe Blonde

The lightest in the line, and a true single malt, this is refreshing with a distinctive malt flavor and just a kiss of hops.

Made in Michigan

Arbor Brewing Tilted Earth Summer IPA

A cool-fermented session IPA, with a pungent and citrusy blend of three hops make this crushable and packed with hoppy goodness.

Six-pack. $11.99, now... $10.99

Perrin Black Ale

A dark as night ale that is light bodied and refreshing, with notes of semi-sweet chocolate and nuances of fresh coffee.

Six-pack $10.99, now... $9.99

Petrus Aged Ale

Considered one of the best wood-matured pale ales, this is bone dry and markedly sharp, with a freshly sour taste.

750ml

$8.99, now... $7.99

Aval Cider

Taking four types of apples picked exclusively in the Breton region in France, this is crisp and citrusy with a delightful balance.
